Acknowledgement

I would first like to thank all of my readers as without you I would not be where I am today.

I would also like to give a very special thank you to Joyce Meyer for taking time away from her busy schedule to edit my works and to Lucy Bowen, Holly Bradshaw, and Adam Bevin for being the best beta readers an author could ask for.

Next, a huge thank you is in order for Declan Sharp for designing all of my book covers.

And finally I would like to thank my family and friends for understanding the many long nights I've spent secluded in my small office with a computer and large pot of coffee as I wrote the night away.

About the Domination Farm

The Domination Farm is a living, breathing, ever-expanding plot of land located in remote Rome, Wisconsin. Founded by Joey Simms on his 160 acre farm, the Domination Farm was meant to be a place of uninhibited kink where Dominants and submissives the world over could come and practice their lifestyle choices in a setting designed with their special brand of fetish in mind.

In its humble beginnings there were little more than a few tents dedicated to the bdsm lifestyle, but as time passed and its popularity grew, so too did the Farm. Tents were replaced with more permanent structures in the form of cabins and a stone wall replaced the old split rail fence that stood around the pastures for more than thirty years.

Inside the walled complex things expanded faster than anyone imagined possible. When Joey passed the reins on to Gwen Price, the Farm exploded in popularity thanks to her business acumen. More buildings were added, the walls were pushed back, and the dirt paths were replaced with paved roads that were given names such as Domination Drive and Submission Street.

Once open only during warmer weather, the addition of insulated and heated buildings meant the Farm could operate year-round thus increasing business even further. This isn't to say the Domination Farm was without its critics. In fact, the people of Rome Wisconsin tried for nearly two decades to have the place closed on moral grounds, but after extensive investigations by police, lawyers, journalists, and congressmen alike they've remained opened. With no laws being broken there was nothing anyone could do and the Farm has endured.

I came up with the idea for the Domination Farm more than a decade ago, but it was only in the last couple of years that I implemented it into one of my stories – the first of which was the Sluts in Training series. Back then it was referred to as the Slave Farm, but after considering the negative connotations the word Slave can have I later changed it to the Domination Farm and greatly expanded upon it from there.

When I first devised the idea of the Domination Farm I wanted it to be a place that other authors could use if they so desired, and to date a few have – expanding upon its history and adding a flavor all their own. All I ask of those wishing to use the Domination Farm and its many locales in their writings is to mention me as the creator of the farm. Other than that they are free to make up names of people, buildings, and continue to make this a place where practitioners of the bdsm lifestyle can do their thing without fear of persecution.

Part 2

Rules of the Domination Farm

Like the Farm itself, the rules are ever-evolving. As the Farm grows in popularity, and tastes are refined, the rules change to reflect this. Below are the current ruled of the farm, but they are subject to change at a moment's notice.

1. All visitors to the Domination Farm must be 18 years of age or older
2. Visitors must enter as either a Dominant, submissive, or Bare-neck.
 - a. Bare-necks are those new to the Farm, or whom have never been collared
 - b. Visitors can only enter as Dominants if they have previously done so and have passed the rigorous training to be called Farm Dominant.
 - c. Submissives are those that have either been collared at the Farm before, or wish to enter as such.
3. Visitors must pay an entrance fee based on their status.
 - a. Bare-necks pay $250 per day
 - b. Submissives pay $350 per day
 - c. Dominants pay $200 per day
4. Submissives and Bare-necks are required to wear a specific outfit consisting of thigh-high latex boots, garter belt, and matching elbow-length gloves. No other articles of clothing will be permitted.
5. All visitors to the Domination Farm are required to wear a special bracelet that keeps track of funds accrued or owed while at the farm.
6. Visitors may accrue up to $1,000 worth of Farm debt during their stay which must be repaid before they are permitted to leave.
7. No recording equipment of any kind is permitted within the walls of the Domination Farm. This includes cameras, cell phones, tape recorders, camcorders, and any other device capable of taking pictures and recording video and sound. Anyone bringing such devices into the Farm are subject to immediate registration as a Farm submissive.
8. All Bare-necks understand and agree that they may be collared at any time while at the Domination Farm.
9. All Bare-necks understand and agree that they have until they enter the submissive registration office to remove the collar or be marked and registered as such.
 - a. The mark of submission is a humiliating submissive name to be tattooed or branded on the right breast as the submissive's new Dominant desires.
 - b. Once a Bare-neck has been registered as a submissive the collar may not be removed for as long as they are at the farm.
10. Anyone willingly entering the Body Modification Building is required to have at least one piece of work done before leaving. If they leave before doing so they are subject to immediate registration as a Farm submissive.
 - a. A piece of work can be any of the following: Humiliating tattoo, brand, or a piercing in an erotic location such as nipples or vagina.

11. Any Bare-neck willingly entering the submissive registration office is subject to immediate registration.
12. Once registered as a submissive that is the only way one can enter on subsequent visits to the Farm. The only exception to this rule are those registered as SWITCH.
13. Submissives collared with a black collar belong to their specific Dominant and may not be used without permission unless the submissive is there alone.
14. All visitors to the Domination Farm understand and agree that they will be recorded at all times while at the Farm and footage may be used on one of the Farm's seven pay-per-view stations.

Part 3

Collars & Armbands

The Domination Farm is all about domination and submission and the way visitors can tell one from the other is by the collar or armband a person wears. The Farm uses state of the art (read: high tech) collars and armbands designed to make removal nearly impossible without the proper tool. Each collar and armband is crafted from high grade leather inside of which is a thin metal strip and circuit board. The inside of the collar - e.g. the side touching the neck, is covered with tiny metal plates that press firmly into the skin of the wearer. If a submissive or Bare-neck accrues farm debt the shock feature of the collar is activated preventing the wearer from leaving the Farm while it is on. The collar and armbands are held in place by super-powered micro magnets that require more than 1,500 pounds of force to open without use of the proper removal tool.

At first glance, it can be almost overwhelming trying to figure out what all of the collars and armbands mean. Below are a list of current Armbands and collars in use and what they mean. This is nowhere near an exhaustive list. Throughout the history of the Domination Farm there have been several special collars and armbands given out to patrons deemed worthy. For instance, Natalie Holt was given the Yellow armband to wear by Mistress Gwen after she completed her training to become a Dominant. She was also given Yellow collars to put around the necks of her first submissives.

1. Black Collar

- a. The black collar is the standard issue collar all dominants are given to snap around the necks of Bare-necks.

2. Blue Collar

- a. The blue collar denotes a Farm submissive. Farm submissives are those men and women that desire a 24/7 submissive lifestyle and have chosen to live at the Domination Farm as such. They work many of the attractions at the Farm and may be used by any Dominant that wishes to use them.

3. Green Collar

- a. The green collar is worn exclusively by those working for DFTV. These men and women are all considered Bare-necks and may not be collared so long as they wear their green collar when they leave the studio.

4. Orange Collar

- a. An orange collar denotes a worker from DF Productions. Anyone wearing an orange collar is considered a Bare-neck, with all of the rights and privileges such a title grants them at the farm.

5. Red Armband

- a. The red armband is worn exclusively by Dominants. Those wearing the red armband may not be collared for any reason without their permission unless they remove the armband for some reason.

6. Purple Armband & Collar

- a. The purple armband and collar combination is worn exclusively by those designated as SWITCH. These men and women are registered at the Domination Farm as both Dominants and Submissives, but may not be used without their express permission.

7. Silver Collar

- a. The silver collar is worn by one person and one person alone. The owner of the Domination Farm. Since the time Mistress Gwen took over for Joey Simms, it has been tradition to have a submissive as owner of the farm.
- b. Although collars are worn by submissives, the silver collar carries the same weight as the red armband in that the wearer may not be used by anyone for any reason without permission first.
- c. The silver collar also makes the wearer immune to the rules of certain buildings. Allowing the owner to go wherever they wish without having to complete mandatory tasks.

8. White Armband & Collar

- a. The white armband is worn exclusively by the doctors and staff of the Clinic. Although the armband normally denotes a Dominant, those wearing the White Armband are not into the lifestyle unless they also wear a white collar

Part 4

Main Characters

The following is a list of known Dominants, submissives, and other workers at the Domination Farm and a short description of each. This is by no means an all-inclusive list as I am constantly expanding the Domination Farm world to include many new attractions and the people needed to run them.

1. Mistress Simone Rios

- a. Mistress Simone is the current owner of the Domination Farm after taking over when Mistress Gwen and her wife retired three years ago. Like Gwen, Simone's past is rooted in the submissive side of the lifestyle and it wasn't until she took over the Farm that she started exploring her dominant side as well. She has been described as imposing yet friendly.
- b. Worked as a lawyer before discovering her submissive side. She gave it all up to live life as a Farm submissive and hasn't regretted a moment of it.
- c. 34 year old Mexican female. 5ft. 7 in. 131 pounds with long black hair and blue eyes. Her measurements are 34C-25-36.
- d. Submissive name is Cumfillly and it is branded on her right breast at the behest of her former Master.
- e. As all Farm owners, Simone lives on the Farm in the owner's private house.
- f. Body Modifications
 - i. Cumfillly branded on right breast
 - ii. Pierced nipples, clit hood, and two rings in each outer labia
 - iii. Tattoo of an arm holding a whip located on left hip.

2. Mistress Ashley Rogers

- a. Mistress Ashley is the daughter of Master Jeromy – the once greatest body modification artist the Domination Farm ever had. After an accident left him partially paralyzed he passed the mantle onto his daughter.
- b. Ashley is not new to the body art game. She ran her father's public tattoo parlor for five years before moving onto the Domination Farm full time. She takes her job as seriously as her father before her, but when not in shop she has been described as spirited with a masochistic streak a mile wide. She is the only person known to have sat on the dreaded punishment seat longer than the required minute. In fact, she sat on it for more than twenty minutes before she had to get up to use the restroom.
- c. 27 year old white female. 5 ft. 5 in. 124 pounds with long auburn hair and green eyes. Her measurements are 36C-24-36.
- d. Although she wears the red armband of the dominant, she has the name Sugarcunt tattooed on her right breast as if it were her submissive name.

3. Master Jordan Kent

- a. Master Jordan currently runs the ever-popular Petting Zoo. He has been described as aloof, but that is not really accurate. Jordan is an incredibly shy man and his lack of conversation skills and nervous looks make others draw false conclusions about him.
- b. 39 year old white male. 6 ft. 3 in. 230 pounds with short brown hair and goatee and dark brown, almost black eyes. He is fit but not muscular and has an 8 inch cock that only sees use on the women of the Petting Zoo when no one else is around.

4. Master Damien Jones

- a. Master Damien Jones runs the Girl-mart – a shop where visitors may go to purchase submissive women between scheduled auctions. Before coming to the Domination Farm eight years ago, he was a fireman. Although he looks intimidating, he is actually quite friendly and willing to help anyone out including those new to the Farm
- b. 44 year old black man. 5 ft. 11 in. 195 pounds with bald head and brown eyes. Damien is fit and muscular with a 10 inch cock.

5. Mistress Claudia Taylor

- a. Mistress Claudia runs the Submissive Registration Office and loves her job more than anything in the world. Although she looks about as intimidating as a noodle, she has a major sadistic streak and isn't afraid to dish out punishment for the slightest perceived infraction.
- b. 28 year old white woman. 5 ft. 6 in. 118 pounds with long brown hair and brown eyes. Her measurements are 34B-23-34.

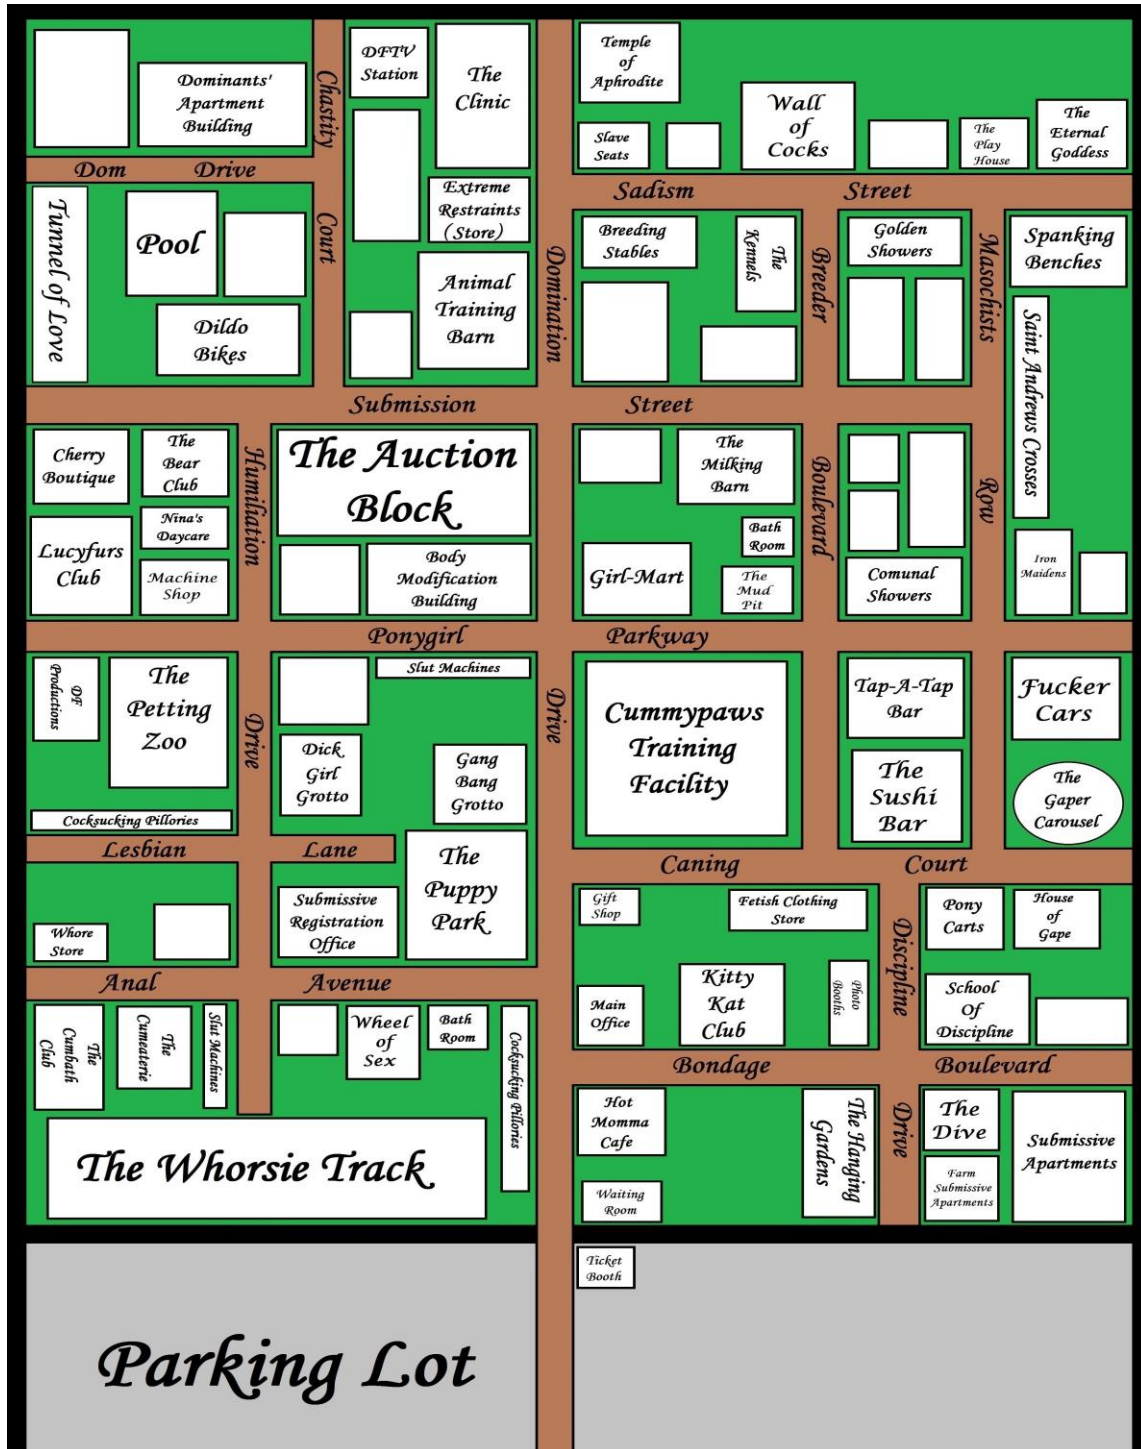

6. Jessica Crane

- a. Jessica is a long-time submissive at the Domination Farm. She began her life as a Farm submissive six years ago three hours into her first visit to the Domination Farm. She has a bubbly personality and takes everything in stride. Although she has a few hard limits she will never cross, she is more than willing to try anything else at least once.
- b. Her submissive name is Honeycunt and it is branded on her right breast at her own request.
- c. 31 year old white woman. 5 ft. 4 in. 122 pounds with pixie style brown hair and hazel eyes. Her measurements are 34B-23-35.

Building Descriptions

The following is a list of all the buildings and attractions currently located within the walls of the Domination Farm. As you can see by looking at the map, this is by no means and exhaustive list. There are currently 62 buildings and attractions and the list is growing all the time.

Animal Training Barn:

This is perhaps the most controversial building in all of the Domination Farm. Holding to its motto of uninhibited sex, the Animal Training Barn takes fetish to a whole new level. The huge red barn has stalls along both sides where horses are kept when they are not roaming the pastures beyond the Farm walls. There's also a pig pen at one end and several dogs roam the Farm at any given time.

The Animal Training Barn isn't where one goes to train animals, no, it's where one goes to be trained to have sex with animals. Bestiality is the name of the game here and under the tutelage of Mistress Ginger, everyone wins. The Animal Training Barn is one of the locations that require a mandatory mark of completion in the form of a tattoo of a horseshoe and rose around which is written TRAINED ANIMAL SLUT.

Auction Block

The Auction Block is a massive stage located roughly in the center of the Farm where submissives and Bare-necks are auctioned off to the highest bidder for a pre-determined period. The amount any given person goes for is completely arbitrary, but one thing is certain – the Farm keeps 40% of the price while the remaining 60% goes into an account to be given to the submissive at the end of his or her term.

The Bear Club

The Bear Club is a gay club catering to the male Farm patrons. Dominants, Bare-necks, and submissives alike frequent the club.

Body Modification Building

For most visitors to the Domination Farm this is by far the most dreaded location there is because the rules are absolute. Anyone entering the building must have at least one piece of work done before leaving or be subject to immediate registration as a farm submissive. Inside the small building is a main waiting room where submissives and Bare-necks have to sit upon dildo seats, and two smaller rooms in the back where all of the work is done by Mistress Ashley and Mistress Raquel.

Breeding Stables

The Breeding Stables is more of a barn than a stable, but that's beside the point. Inside the large open room are some fifty high-tech pillories where women can be placed for breeding. Or at least until fifty men deposit their load inside of them. Attached to each pillory is an electronic device that keeps count of how many men each woman has had sex with and how many more they have before the locking mechanism releases and she is free to go. The Breeding Stables is one of the locations that gives mandatory Marks of Completion in the form of a tattoo that reads: BREEDING COW.

Cherry Boutique

The Cherry Boutique is a small shop that sells lubes, lotions, creams, and waxes of every conceivable kind.

The Clinic

The Clinic is the Domination Farm's very own personal hospital staffed by real doctors capable of treating any and all injuries and maladies. There are ten doctors and nurses on duty at any given time in this small, but state-of-the-art hospital.

Cocksucking Pillories

The cocksucking pillories are the longest lived and most popular attraction at the Domination Farm. This row of metal pillories with padded wrist and neck holes holds as many as twenty men or women in place while other Farm patrons use their mouths for pleasure. Only when the person locked in the pillory had sucked fifty men will the locking mechanism release and the person be free to go. Each pillory has an electronic device on it that keeps track of how many cocks have been sucked and how many remain before release. Men pay $10 to use the woman's mouth, half of which is put on her Farm Bracelet.

Communal Showers

This is another building comprised of a large open room. In this case it's a shower stall. Running along three walls are enough shower heads for forty people to shower at once. As this is the only place to shower outside of the Dominant's Apartment building, Bare-necks and submissives alike must shower here.

The Cumbath Club

The Cumbath Club is a masturbator's dream come true. Patrons of the dance club have one goal in mind – shoot their semen on as many others as they possibly can.

The Cumeaterie

The Cumeaterie is the Domination Farms premier restaurant serving breakfast, lunch and dinner all day long. They have a wide range of cuisine from Italian to Mexican, but they all have one thing in common – each meal is served covered in tasty semen and not a drop can be wasted.

Until recently, the Cumeaterie was the only place on the entire Farm where Bare-necks and submissives could eat. There are other places now, but many still frequent the Cumeaterie because of the quality of food and taste of the semen. It is touted as the best in the world by all whom eat it.

Cummypaws Training Facility

The Cummypaws Training Facility is a massive three story building where puppy and pony girls are trained by professional Masters and Mistresses with years of experience in the field. The facility is wildly popular and potential clients must make reservations a year in advance.

The six month long course consists of physical and psychological reconditioning to retrain the human mind into believing it is, in reality, a puppy or pony. Command words are instilled so that the person can switch between roles with but a few words from his or her Master or Mistress.

DF Productions

DF Productions is the Domination Farm's personal sex toy company. They produce all of the sex toys found throughout the Farm and its many shops. They also sell worldwide.

DFTV Station

The entire Domination Farm is monitored by camera 24/7. Every street. Every building. Every nook and cranny. Everything is recorded for use by the DFTV Station – the Domination Farm's personal television station. Footage is run live 24/7 on one of seven pay-per-view stations.

Dick-Girl Grotto

Like a bit of cock with your tits and ass? Then you'll love the Dick-Girl Grotto. Some of the world's sexiest shemales work this small Garden of Eden and all are more than willing to make love to man and woman alike.

Dildo Bikes

Dildo Bikes is a small shop that sells exercise equipment designed to fuck the person using it. While the dildo bike – an exercise bike with one or two dildos sticking through the seat, is the most popular item, they also sell dildo treadmills and dildo steppers.

The Dive

The Dive is a recent addition to the Domination Farm. Opening only a year ago, The Dive is a mix between a fast food and sit-down restaurant. It is frequented more by the under thirty crowd than anyone else and is becoming quite famous for its amazing pizza.

Dominant's Apartment Building

This three story brick and mortar building is housing for the many Farm Dominants. The first floor is nothing more than sleeping rooms for those only visiting the Farm for a short time, while the top two floors are luxurious apartments for those living at the farm, or for those staying an extended period of time.

The Eternal Goddess

The Eternal Goddess is a five star restaurant for Dominants only. This rule is so strict that not even Switches are permitted to enter. Any submissive, Bare-neck or switch that enters the establishment is subject to immediate registration as a farm submissive. The place is staffed with world-renowned chefs and waiters that also happen to be Dominant.

Extreme Restraints

Extreme Restraints is a small store that sells bondage equipment of all kinds. From ball gags to zip ties, canes to whips, and rope to Saint Andrews crosses, you can find all of your bondage gear needs at Extreme Restraints.

Farm Submissive Apartments

This three story brick and mortar building is where the Farm submissives call home. Each small apartment consists of a bedroom, bathroom with toilet and sink, and a living room for entertaining other submissives.

Fetish Clothing Store

Every Bare-neck and submissives has paid this shop a visit at least once during their stay at the Farm as it is mandatory. This is where all new visitors are fitted for their fetish outfit – the only clothes they are permitted to wear for their stay at the Farm. But that's not all they do at the Fetish Clothing store. They also sell every conceivable type of fetishwear available from corsets and latex dresses, to leather pants and vests.

Fucker Cars

Fuckers cars is the Domination Farms answer to bumper cars. This wildly fun and addictive ride adds a kinky twist to the attraction with the addition of inflatable dildos on the seat. Whenever the cars bump together air is sent through tubes and into the dildos inflating them a little at a time for the duration of the ride. Each car can seat two people and has at least one dildo per person.

Gang Bang Grotto

The Gang Bang Grotto is for those that love taking on multiple partners at once. In fact, it is mandatory for any entering the grotto to partake in a gang bang with no fewer than twenty men. The Grotto is one of the places that gives a mark of completion in the form of a tattoo that reads: GANG BANG WHORE.

The Gaper Carousel

The Gaper Carousel is a twenty horse carousel with tapered dildos on the saddle. While the ride goes around, the rider is bounced up and down on the dildos – their holes slowly stretched open a fraction of an inch at a time.

Gift Shop

This small shop sells trinkets and souvenirs of the Domination Farm. Things such as shirts, pictures, post cards, and much more can be bought here to give to friends, or to keep as mementos of their stay.

Girl-Mart

The Girl-Mart is a small shop where submissive men and women can put themselves up for sale for an extended period of time. They list all of their limits, an asking price, and a term limit in the hopes a Master or Mistress will purchase them. The Farm keeps 30% of the profits while the remaining 70% goes into an account to be given to the submissive at the end of the term. Only registered submissives may put themselves up for sale at this store.

Golden Showers

Catering to those with a pee fetish, the Golden showers is indistinguishable from the communal showers by those not knowing the location of one versus the other. The Golden Showers is a huge open shower room where the occupant is required to let no less than twenty people pee on them. The Golden Showers is one of the locations that gives a mandatory Mark of Completion in the form of a tattoo that says: PISS SLUT.

The Hanging Gardens

The Hanging Gardens are an astonishing sight to behold. Hanging throughout this serene flower garden are more than three dozen women tied in intricate positions of suspended bondage for all to see. The women are all there willingly and are highly trained to stay in suck demanding positions for several hours at a time.

Hot Momma Cafe

This small coffee shop caters to those with a breast milk fetish. All drinks are served with breast milk squeezed fresh from the breasts of the women working at the shop. All of the women working at the shop must be pregnant and producing breast milk.

House of Gape

The House of Gape is a small building dedicated to all things fisting. During a three day training session men and women can have their holes stretched open to take large objects and a small fist. For the adventurous there's an extended two week course that will open a person up to take the largest of sex toys and fists. At the end of training the 'student' will receive a mandatory Mark of Completion in the form of a tattoo of a fist around which is written FISTING MASTER.

Iron Maidens

The Iron Maidens are the Domination Farms take on the medieval torture device of the same name. Instead of long spikes driving through the occupant, the walls are lined with hundreds of nubs that press firmly all over the body while a massive dildo fucks into one hole or another. The nubs are different lengths and thicknesses with some being almost sharp enough to puncture the skin.

The Kennels

The Kennels is a small shop dedicated to selling the absolute best trained puppy and pony submissives that were trained exclusively at Cummypaws. The men and women on sale are there willingly and are looking for a new Master or Mistress to care for them in their new life as a pet.

The Kitty Cat Club

This incredibly popular dance club caters to the lesbian and bisexual women of the Domination Farm. Once a one story building with twenty or thirty visitors a day, it had grown into a much larger two story structure with more than two hundred visitors every day.

Lucyfurs Club

This small club caters to those into the furry lifestyle. Only those dressed in furry costumes are permitted inside.

Machine Shop

The Machine shop makes and sells mechanical equipment of all kinds. From the exercise equipment sold at Dildo Bikes, to fucking machines, it's all made at the Machine Shop.

Main Office

This small log cabin building is the main office for the Domination Farm. The Owner can be found here on most days dealing with the day to day running of the Farm with her retinue of personal submissives. The main office is one of four locations on the entire Farm with a working telephone line.

The Milking Barn

The milking Barn is a small log cabin barn inside of which are several milking stations much like one would see used on cows. But there are no cows here – at least not of the bovine variety. No, this milking barn caters to those with a lactation fetish. The milkers are hooked up to human women and used to induce lactation, or to pump the milk from those already lactating.

The Mud Pit

A recent addition to the Domination Farm, the Mud Pit is exactly that – a large pit filled with about a foot of premium, high-grade mud. Stadium seating surrounds the pit for spectators to watch men and women mud wrestling.

Nina's Daycare

For those with a diaper fetish Nina's Daycare is the place to be. Set up as a daycare and nursery for the adult baby, Nina's is run by Mistress Olivia and staffed by half a dozen farm submissives as wet nurses.

The Petting Zoo

The Petting Zoo is by far the most popular attraction at the Domination Farm. Dressed in the latex outfits of various animals, men and women crawl around the enclosure having sex with each other and any Farm patrons wishing to use them. Any Bare-neck or submissive can make use of the Zoo as animals, while only Bare-necks and Dominants may use said animals.

Costumes can be obtained from Master Jordan Kent at the nearby building. The only rule of the Petting Zoo is anyone going in as one of the animals must remain in the enclosure for no less than four hours and make themselves available to anyone wishing to use them.

Photo Booths

The Photo booths are just that – booths where Farm patrons can enter to have their picture taken in a variety of poses and with many different props. Each booth is set up to depict a certain fetish and anyone entering must do the fetish in question while their picture is taken during the short session. When the patron leaves the farm they will have at least two dozen pictures to remember the trip by.

The Play House

For those into roleplaying, the Play House is the place to be. The rooms of this two story brick and mortar mansion cater to a variety of role-play scenes from doctor/patient, to schoolgirl, to sexy secretary.

Pony Carts

Pony Girls are not only trained at the Cummypaws Facility, they also work for Pony Carts – a small shop where patrons can rent a pony girl to pull them around the farm in their very own cart. Rates start at $50 per hour and go up from there depending on the model of cart and the number of pony girls pulling it.

Pony Carts is one of the locations that allow Bare-necks to sign up as cart pullers and will pay them $20 an hour to do so. It's hard work, but also a good way for a Bare-neck to make a little extra spending money should she find herself strapped for cash.

The Puppy Park

Are you, or do you have a submissive trained as a puppy? Well, take him or her to the Puppy Park to show them off and give them a bit of exercise. Puppies can play with each other, or run one of three obstacle courses to increase agility, stamina, and strength. And don't forget the annual Puppy Show where the winner receives a free refresher training at Cummypaws followed by a free month of admission to the Domination Farm.

Saint Andrews Crosses

The Saint Andrews crosses used along Masochist Row are made of metal with leather cuffs at the corners. Those placed on the cross are subject to no less than ten minutes of use by any one of the Farms many sadists. Use can range from simple sex to punishment by a variety of instruments. There are currently twenty Saint Andrews crosses with plans to expand this amount by at least 50% in the next year.

School of Discipline

Are you an unruly submissive? A Bare-neck wishing a taste of obedience training? Then get your soon to be sore behind to the School of Discipline where Masters and Mistresses with years of training will teach you all you need to know about being a perfectly obedient submissive.

Upon completion of the ninety day course the submissive or Bare-neck will receive their mark of completion in the form of a tattoo that reads: OBEDIENT SUBMISSIVE

Slave Seats

Slave seats is a shop that sells the ever popular dildo seat. Dildo seats are chairs, benches, and other pieces of furniture designed to have one or more large dildos sticking out of the seat on which the submissive must sit. They are placed all over the Farm and are the only place Bare-necks and submissives are permitted to sit. Each seat comes with a large box of condoms that may be used on the dildos. The dildos come in a variety of styles – all huge and designed to keep the sitter stretched open for further humiliation.

Slut Machines

The Slut Machine is an air conditioned metal box that looks somewhat like a lightning bolt in design. On the inside is a padded front where the Bare-neck or submissive can rest her upper body while his or her holes remain completely exposed to anyone wishing to pay the price for use. Once $20 has been inserted into the machine a protective arm lowers giving the customer free rein to use the occupant for Five minutes. Half of the money goes to the occupant of the machine while the Farm gets the other half.

Slut Machines are timed and will only open after four hours no matter how many customers use the occupant.

Spanking Benches

Another staple of Masochists row are the spanking benches. Bare-necks or submissives strapped to the bench are subjected to no less than twenty and no more than fifty swats with the spanking implement of choice. Only after the agreed upon number of swats has been delivered will the submissive or Bare-neck be released.

Submissive Apartments

This is where Bare-necks and submissives that are not farm submissives can go to rest for the night. Each apartment is nothing more than a studio with a bed for sleeping and a few dildo seats for the off chance that the occupant has company. There is also a small bathroom with sink and toilet, but no shower. For that they must pay a visit to the communal showers.

The submissive apartment building is the only place on the entire Farm where Dominants are not permitted to collar a Bare-neck as it is seen as unsporting to collar someone while they sleep.

Submissive Registration Building

This is where the magic happens; where normal, everyday men and women are registered as submissives and given their submissive name. Perhaps the only place more dreaded than this is the Body Modification Building because once a patron steps through the doors – collared or not, they are required to go through the registration process. Those entering without a collar will be registered as Farm submissives. The only ones exempt from the registration process are Dominants.

The Sushi Bar

This sushi restaurant has quickly become a favorite amongst Farm patrons for its high-quality sushi as well as the submissives that act as serving platters. While diners eat off of beautiful young men and women they are free to play with the serving platter as well.

Swimming Pool

Nothing beats the hot summer heat, or the pain of a freshly caned ass like a refreshing dip in the pool.

Tap-A-Tap Bar

The Tap-A-Tap is an open air bar known for its wall of taps – the nether region of submissive women where bottles of beer are kept. Customers come in and order from their favorite tap and watch as one bottle is pulled free while another is inserted in its place.

Temple of Aphrodite

The Temple of Aphrodite isn't so much a place to worship the Goddess of love, beauty and sexuality as it is a place to get one's freak on. Run by the aptly named Goddess Aphrodite, visitors are required to complete the three Rituals of Passion to prove their worth. Failure to complete the rituals result in punishment until completed, and leaving before receiving the mark of completion will result in immediate registration as a farm submissive.

The Rituals of Passion are as follows:

1. Ritual of Seed
 - a. During this ritual the initiate must have sex with no fewer than fifteen men and all of the men must deposit their semen in the woman's vagina.
2. Ritual of Hephaestus
 - a. For this ritual the initiate will be laid upon the altar of Aphrodite and have her holes stretched until she is able to take fully the object of Aphrodite's passion – a massive dildo molded after the supposed cock of the ancient Greek God Hephaestus.
3. Ritual of Aphrodite's Punishment
 - a. As Aphrodite was punished by the Gods for her infidelity, so too shall the initiate. No fewer than 100 swats will be delivered to the initiate's body and no part of the body is off limits from punishment. In fact, the erogenous zones are given preferential treatment over all others. Only when they are covered in welts will the punishers move on to other areas of the body.
4. The mark of completion for the Temple of Aphrodite is a branding of a dove and the words LOVE GODDESS above and below.

Tunnel of Love

The Domination Farms version of this classic ride comes with a twist as always. The riders climb into the small boat and sit upon dildos to keep their holes open and ready. During the ten minute long ride the occupants of the boat have sex with no fewer than three men and women. If there is more than one person in the boat they are not permitted to touch each other for the duration of the ride. Failure to follow the rules results in punishment when the ride is over.

Waiting Room

This is the first place those new to the Domination Farm see. It is a log cabin style building with a large open room. Padded benches surround three of the four walls to give new patrons a place to sit while they wait for a Dominant to come give them the guided tour to the Fetish clothing store. This is the only place on the entire Farm where street clothes are permitted.

All clothes must be removed before the guided tour begins and those refusing will be subject to punishment to be determined by the guiding Dominant. Once given the guided tour a Bare-neck is no longer permitted to enter the Waiting Room. Doing so will result in punishment.

Wall of Cocks

From a distance this looks like any other climbing wall and it isn't until one gets closer that the major difference can be seen. At random intervals along this 70 foot climbing wall are dildos of varying lengths and thicknesses. While climbing the wall, the climber must stop at each dildo along the path and suck it for at least thirty seconds.

To change things up some of the dildos are attached to a pump that will 'ejaculate' real semen into the mouth of the sucker. If any semen is spilled the climber will be subjected to no less than ten swats for each time the semen is wasted.

Wheel of Sex

The Wheel of Sex is a purely voluntary attraction that draws a surprising amount of visitors. Each spin of the giant wheel cost $50 and whatever fetish it lands on is what the spinner must complete. Failure to complete the fetish as described on the wheel results in a visit to the spanking benches for punishment.

Whore Store

The Whore Store sells all of the sex toys not available at one of the other specialty shops located around the Farm. For the most part they sell the dildos, butt plugs, vibrators, and other such sex toys not found anywhere else on the Farm.

The Whorsie Track

This eighth-mile race track is where pony girls can go to strut their stuff and show off their training. Those trained at Cummpaws use the track on a regular basis during cart pulling training and shows are put on nearly daily.

Part 7

Domination Farm Lexicon

Armband: Refers to the leather armband worn around the upper arm of Dominants

Bare-neck: Refers to any man or woman new to the Farm that has never been collared.

Collar: Refers to the metal reinforced leather collar worn by submissives and Switches.

The Farm: Short for Domination Farm

Farm Bracelet: A silver bracelet worn by all patrons of the Domination Farm that keeps track of funds due to the wearer or owed to the farm.

Farm Debt: Debt accrued during the stay inside of the farm. No Bare-neck or submissive may have more than $1,000 of Farm Debt at any given time. The debt can only be paid off by participating in the attractions that pay.

Farm Submissive: A submissive that has chosen to live his or her life on the Farm 24/7.

Neckband: Same as collar.

Submissive Name: A humiliating and degrading name that is given to ALL registered submissives and which is either tattooed or branded on the right breast as the submissive's Dominant requests.

Whorsie: A pony girl specifically trained at the Cummpaws Training Facility and given the mark of completion. All others are simply pony girls.
